An adaptive outlet for students' negative thoughts/feelings- providing the students a cathartic experience.	Students loved the sessions; many have gone on to look at starting boxing outside of school time. Students bonded with one another during the sessions, the sessions had a profound positive effect on their mental health, social development and emotional development. Due to high levels of student engagement and enjoyment, we are looking to continue these sessions next term. Without this funding we would not be able to run these sessions and thus our students wouldn't be receiving these cathartic experiences or develop the social/emotional skills they need to function	£40 a session x 5 sessions . £200
